How does MCCW accomplish its mission?

---

Chapel groups provide spiritually enriching programs, enabling women
to minister to one another and the community.

Altar Linens Society: Maintains and ensures that the altar linens used for Masses are kept clean and in good condition.

All we need is YOU!

Who is MCCW?

We consist of and for Catholic women associated with the military and the priest /moderators at military chapels.

Our Mission

To reflect a visible presence of Christ in military communities by fostering and nourishing women in spirituality, leadership, and service.

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, MCCW serves as a vital enhancement of the religious support mission of military chapels.

Meetings & Programs

All meetings and programs are held at Fort Carson —
Soldiers Memorial Chapel.

Wednesdays

Prayer and Devotion Group 5:00 PM

Hosts for the Ministry to Families of Deployed Soldiers 5:00 PM

Fridays

Meeting, Study Group, and Fellowship 9:30 AM to 11:30 AM

In-house childcare is available during MCCW events.

Why does MCCW exist?

We exist to build community among Catholic women at Fort Carson. This community strengthens the faith life of the individual members and the Catholic community at large. MCCW groups assist the priest by supporting his ministry and mission in the Catholic community.

MCCW at the Regional and Worldwide levels exist to support the chapel level activity.

MCCW is an auxiliary of the Archdiocese for the Military Services and the US Army Chief of Chaplains Office.
